Privacy

The Privacy Act 1988 requires us to tell you that as an insurer we collect your personal and sensitive information in order to calculate your loss and entitlements, determine our liability, compile data and handle claims.

We disclose personal information to third parties who we believe are necessary to assist us and them in providing the relevant services and products. For example, in handling claims, we may have to disclose your personal and other information to third parties such as other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents or other parties as required by law. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by us to them to the specific purpose for which we supplied it.

You have the right to seek access to your personal information and to correct it at any time. Please contact us on 1300 360 529 EST 9am-5pm, Monday-Friday and advise us of the changes.

IDR Statement

Disputes are not an everyday occurrence at Allianz. However we do provide an internal dispute resolution process should any dispute arise. Please feel free to ask for details.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of this process, we will advise you how to contact the insurance industry's external independent complaints scheme (subject to eligibility).

Privacy Declaration

I/We acknowledge that I/we have read and understood the Privacy Act 1988 information referred to above and consent to the collection, storage, use and disclosure of personal and sensitive information of all persons affected by this claim, with their approval.

I/We acknowledge that if I/we do not agree to the collection of this personal and sensitive information then Allianz will be unable to process my/our claim.
